

CARC Fox Hunt Rules

1. The fox hunt is open to anyone with equipment capable of sniffing the fox.
2. All traffic laws will be obeyed and any activity that would generate complaints to the police will be avoided.
3. A single vehicle and those persons inside it will constitute a hunting team. The vehicle driver is not to actively sniff for the fox while driving.
4. Registration will begin at 10 AM and the hunt will begin at 10:30 AM at the Farmer's Market parking lot. The starting mileage of hunting vehicles will be recorded. Hunters can start after that but they must check in first and have their mileage recorded. The hunt will last for 12 noon or until all participants have checked back in.
5. The hidden transmitter shall cycle with a 70 second CW transmission every 5 minutes. The fox frequency is 146.550 simplex.
6. The hidden transmitter shall be located within the city limits of Marianna as depicted on the provided map. The hidden transmitter shall be located on public property or public accessible property. The hidden transmitter shall not be hidden in a location that constitutes a hazard to the hunters or on private property.
7. During the hunt, the hunting teams should not communicate with each other. No communication of any type is allowed on the fox frequency. Do NOT reveal that you have found the fox or its location. Let everyone be able to hunt like they can still get first place.
8. If communication not related to the fox's location becomes necessary, the 146.670 club repeater will be used.
9. Moving, altering, hiding, or obscuring the fox in any way is prohibited.
10. To constitute a find of the fox, the team must return to the starting point and report the exact location of the fox and the secret message attached to it.
11. The team that returns first and the team with the least mileage will each receive a check for $50. It is possible for one team to receive both prizes.
12. This is intended to be a friendly and fair contest. Avoid any devious conduct.
13. In case of rain the fox hunt will be moved to the following Saturday.
14. Good luck, hunt safely and have fun!
